EDINBURGH CASTLE

Edinburgh Castle is a world-famous visitor attraction in the city of Edinburgh. It is a historic fortress which dominates the skyline of the Scottish capital. When you climb Castle Hill, you walk in the footsteps of soldiers, kings and queens. Choose your own route around the Castle based on how much time or what interests you have. Also enjoy a light snack or a traditional afternoon tea in the café inside the Castle.

Edinburgh Castle is open from 9.30 a.m. daily, closing at 6 p.m. (last entry 5 p.m.).

SKIRTS NOT ONLY FOR WOMEN

We always think skirts are for women, but in many countries men wear skirts too.

In Scotland, for example, men wear kilts, a type of knee-length skirt. It is often made of woollen cloth in a tartan pattern.

There are various tartan patterns: they correspond to different Scottish clans – that are large family groups.

Hamilton, MacDonald, Wallace and McKenzie are the most famous ones.

Kilts are part of the national dress of Scotland: Scottish men wear a kilt on special occasions, such as weddings, in parades or when they play the bagpipes.

The Scots are very proud of this particular traditional costume.

Boy: Oh no... It's Monday tomorrow...
I don't like that day!

Girl: Yes, but who likes Monday on Sunday evening?

Boy: Kim, is your week usually busy?

Girl: Yes, but not boring. On Mondays we stay at school until a quarter past five for our IC project. On Tuesdays I have my Art club: we draw, paint and visit interesting picture galleries.

Boy: ... and what about on Wednesdays?

Girl: On Wednesdays I usually meet my friends Tina and Clarice at "La Ballerina", an Italian café. On Thursdays after school Tina and I go to the Odeon to watch films in Spanish: it's our favourite school subject!

Boy: Friday is the last day before the weekend. Is it a busy day?

Girl: Well... on Fridays I always have some tests - written or oral - whereas in the afternoon I go to drama club, I like it very much.

Then it's Saturday at last and I can relax. I usually go horseriding in the countryside: a real paradise.
